

Cell Notes
20 November 2016

- John 18: 33-37
- Revelation 1: 4-8

Discussion

1. What about Sundays service was meaningful to you? (If you weren't at church, what about your last week was meaningful to you?)
2. One senses that we find it easier to recognise the God who was (seeing God in the past) and the God who is to come (hope for the future) but how do you experience the God who is, the God present and at work in the here and now?
3. How does life in community help you experience/discover the God who is?
4. What does it mean to be in the world, but live according to another kingdom, God's kingdom?
5. Someone once said that the Church today looks no different to the world! Discuss this comment. Is it true, and why/why not?
6. Do you think DMC would look different if we all lived by the radical claims Christ's kingdom makes on us? And if so, in what ways would it look different?

Pray:

For DMC and its leaders, for your group and for the world

Practical:

This is the last week of cell notes for the year.

Why not end the year with a social, where you invite everyone who has drifted in and out of your cell during the last year. Use the opportunity to invite them to join you in January.
