Minister's Note 18 June 2017

"Youth Day", remembered on Friday 16 June, was a reminder that many of our Nation's children have been victims of violence.

I learned on Wednesday that "a police officer, allegedly working with a gun dealer and a businessman, sold guns that had been handed in to the police by members of the public for destruction to gangsters on the Cape Flats. To date ballistic tests have linked just some of these stolen guns to the shooting of 261 children (aged 18 or younger) on the Cape Flats of whom 89 were killed"[1]

Troubling stories like these remind us of what we learned during our Lent: "our struggle is … against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms" (Eph. 6:12).

Into a world that is "harassed" by evil (Mt. 9:36) Jesus sent the Disciples to minister healing and to proclaim the Good News – the Kingdom of Heaven has come near (10:5-7).

Let us "ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field (Mt. 9:38)." Let us be ready to answer His call. And, this Fathers' Day, let those of us who are blessed to be fathers learn to regard all children as precious as our own.

God Bless,
Sean
