Minister's Note

29 July 2018

Today we celebrate the baptism of Ada and Hunter Botha. Imagine, for a moment, this prayer being prayed for them:

I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge - that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God (Eph. 3:18-19).

If I had to "redo" my parenting I'd commit, on the day of baptism, to daily lay a loving hand on my child's forehead and pray "may you be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God " (of course it is never to late to start).

At the height of the summer drought, on my Sabbath day, I sometimes walked to a spot on Table Mountain where a perennial spring cascades from the mountainside. My spiritual discipline for the day was to stand under this natural shower and then pretend to turn off the tap after 2 minutes! I needed reminding of God's abundance.

To be filled to the measure of the fullness of God is like topping up your cup in a swift, clear stream. It immediately overflows, inviting us to be carried away in God's river of life.

God Bless, Sean
