Minister's Note

1 September 2019

Today the prophet Jeremiah draws our focus on the contrast between life that is worthy or worthwhile and life that is worthless, empty or vain. During Jeremiah's time, the chosen of God chose idols and shunned God's purposes. In our world today, for many the quest for life at its best has become the quest for recognition, influence, wealth, fame and the praise of others. Values, integrity and faithfulness all end up being unneeded as success, victory or popularity become the ends which justify any means. Too often the voices that lead and influence us are not those who are the most devoted, prayerful or compassionate, but those who have succeeded at society's game. Sadly, the values of our world have been adopted by people and communities of faith.

We are invited to make wise choices and choose what is life-giving and worthy. There is no substitute for embracing the ways of the life-giving God. Only when we align our choices with the concerns of God in the world will our lives make sense and make a difference. God alone is the "fountain of living water." May we heed Jeremiah's call and not miss God's bountiful gift.

Blessings,
Vuyelwa

BOUNDARIES

Is your life out of control? Do people take advantage of you? Do you have trouble saying no? Are you disappointed with God because of unanswered prayers? Having clear boundaries is essential to a healthy, balanced life-style. Boundaries define who we are and who we are not. A course on "Boundaries" will be presented by Stacey Hart beginning on the 16 September at 18h30 and will run for six consecutive Monday evenings. Refreshments will be served. Please contact Stacey on 079 494 0541 or Yvonne Engelke 021 976 0598 for reservations.
