Minister's Note

29 September 2019

Many of us today may encounter situations that we cannot change, no matter how much we would have wanted things to be different. The question then is how one, amidst such difficult circumstances, can live the best possible life in which we find joy and meaning. In Jeremiah's message there is a call to us to be good citizens. Our wellbeing, our wholeness, our hope and our future, is tied to the peace and prosperity of the cities and countries we live in. We are called to prayerfully work for the wholeness and wellbeing of the place where we live and work, because if it prospers, we too will prosper.

As we listen to God's Word which nurtures us with hope for the future, may we speak our hope into the lives of our neighbors and live out our hope among them, with them and for them, so that they can have hope for the future, too. We'll find God in this simple, holy work among our neighbors. Let us pray that each of us live as godly citizens full of salt and light in our respective Babylon. God is with us.

Blessings,
Vuyelwa
