MINISTER'S NOTE

13 APRIL 2025

"There is no question that the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem is one of the most profound depictions of God's Reign in the New Testament." (John v/d Laar) And that is what we explore this Sunday bearing in mind all that we have said about God's Kingdom on our journey so far. We begin our journey into Holy Week by not only exploring "The call of this King" and what it means for our daily living but also pause to respond once more to the call of this King, affirming our commitment to living as His Kingdom people, so that His Kingdom may come - through us!!

See you on Sunday.

David.
