MINISTER'S NOTE

8 FEBRUARY 2026

Much of what God does in our lives happens quietly. The deepest changes often take place beneath the surface - shaping our hearts, softening our responses, and helping us trust more deeply. At times, you may not even notice it happening, and you may wonder whether anything is really changing at all.

And yet, there are moments when this inner work begins to show, because a life rooted in God's presence naturally begins to take shape in everyday ways. It shows in how you relate to others, how you remain attentive to what is life-giving, and how you choose to stay engaged rather than step back.

One of the ways the inner work becomes visible is through participation - both in the shared life of the church and in the places where you spend your days. You may sense an invitation to serve, to contribute, or simply to show up more fully. This is about allowing God's work within you to find expression alongside others.

You are called to be present in faithful, life-giving ways.

If the world feels heavy right now, know that you are not alone, and you are not expected to carry more than you can hold. Trust that God is at work in you - quietly, patiently, faithfully.

May your life gently reflect the grace that is shaping you, one step at a time.

Blessings,

Vuyelwa.
