MINISTER'S NOTE

24 MAY 2026

Today we remember that the coming of the Holy Spirit was not simply a dramatic moment in the life of the early church, it was the beginning of a movement. Fearful disciples were interrupted by the presence of God and sent out into the world with courage, compassion, and purpose. Our theme today, Interrupted into Motion, reminds us that the Holy Spirit still works in this way. The Spirit interrupts comfortable faith, awakens us from complacency, and moves us beyond ourselves toward the common good, as God continues to work in us and through us today.

Pentecost also reminds us of something deeply comforting: we do not journey through life alone. God's Spirit is still present in the ordinary moments of everyday life — in our worries and weariness, in our work and responsibilities, in our griefs and hopes. The Spirit comes alongside us with strength when we feel weak, peace when we feel overwhelmed, and courage when the road ahead feels uncertain.

Perhaps the question for us this Pentecost is the same question asked by the crowd in Acts: "What does this mean?"

May we hear God's answer not only in words, but in the quiet assurance that the Spirit is with us still - guiding, renewing, and gently interrupting us into lives that bring hope and blessing to the world.
Blessings, Vuyelwa.
